Child Care Director Speaks on Panel At P.-T.A. Confab
Attending second annual convention of the California Parents' Association for Child Care at the Municipal Auditorium in Long Beach on Saturday from the Hawthorne Child Care Center were: Mrs. Ann G. Moore, director; Mrs. Cora McClellan, Mildred Olney, Donna Shoemaker, Mary Korff and Agatha Cohen.
Delegates from the 298 Child Care Centers throughout California were represented.
Burt Levitt, Superintendent of Schools, San Francisco, was the speaker of the morning discussing "The Inter-Relation of Child Care and Public School Problems."
A panel composed of Mrs. Ann G. Moore, Director of Hawthorne Child Care Center; Miss Mary Alice Mallum, Educational Consultant, State Department of Education; Walter S. Tatum, Director of San Diego Child Care Centers, discussed "The Organization and Programming of a Plan for Parents and Teachers to Work Together in the Centers."
Betty L. Bachman, Legislative Chairman, C.P.A.C.C. gave a Summary of Recent Legislative Trends and the Hon. Carl Fletcher, member of the assembly, California Legislature, told of the future possibilities for Child Care. He stated that there is sufficient need for permanent Child Care Centers, that the present program is inadequate to meet the needs, and that the Child Care Centers should be administered by the State Department of Education, that the present law must be changed to include members of the armed services now ineligible and mothers called to defense work must again become eligible for this type of care.

Washington Offers Adult Art Classes
Washington Adult School is offering a class in Portraiture, Sketching, and Life Art on Wednesday evenings 6:30 to 9:30. The class is offered to give those who have a keen sense of art appreciation an opportunity to develop their own originality under trained leadership. Students in this course will be instructed to use pencil or brush as a medium of self-expression. Lessons in still life will alternate with instruction using professional models.
Mrs. Greta Aufhauser, a native of Holland, was granted a four-year scholarship by the Dutch government. Following the liberation of Holland, she went to Paris to continue her study of art at L'Ecole des Beaux Arts. She comes to Washington Evening High School equipped with excellent training, experience, and background.

Milk Bowl Carnival Thanksgiving Event
Mrs. Paul Van Riper, financial secretary of 87th Street P.T.A., is in charge of the sale of tickets for the Milk Bowl Carnival to be held at the Coliseum on Thanksgiving Day, November 23rd from 11 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. 75 per cent of the proceeds will be allocated for the Tenth District feeding program and the remaining 25 per cent will be sent to needy schools for athletic equipment.
Mrs. Paul Van Riper or Mrs. Vernon Kidd, president of 87th Street P.T.A. have tickets for sale.

Washington Grade School
Election of officers for the Washington School Fifth Grade were held last week. Elected were David Bishop, president, Helyan McGinnis, Mary Beth Goagh, secretary and Arlene Brinkley, treasurer.
A Columbus Day play was given on Thursday to commemorate the historical event. These events were under the direction of the teacher, Rodriguez.
